DIGGS PUT ON BACK BY ROCHE

Prosecutor Denounced White
Slaver in Scathing Outline of His Crimes

SCORED DIGGS FOR LEAD
IN RUIN OF TWO GIRLS

Defense Attorney Devlin Made
Bitter Attack on Virtue of Girls in the Case

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20.—Special prosecutor Roche today subjected Maury Diggs to a terrific castigation in his closing address to the jury. He declared the case was based on the depravity of Diggs, who attempted to hide behind the skirts of his wife and child, who sat silent while the prosecutor talked. Roche asserted that the Warrington girl went to Reno solely in the hope of marriage, claiming that to be the only thing she asked at his hands.

"The girl was preparing for motherhood before she went to Reno," Roche declared, "and Diggs was responsible for her condition." The prosecutor asserted that Diggs meant to get the Warrington and Norris girls to Reno, then abandon them after placing them in such a compromising position that they could not return home. He continued: "Diggs' character is shown by the fact that he brought the girl to his own home for immoral purposes, taking her into the sanctuary of his wife when the latter was absent. He might be forgiven these things, but when he later requested his wife to invite into her home the girl with whom he had committed adultery, that was the most cowardly crime in the calendar, and an insult to womanhood."

Roche declared that in his office, while under the influence of wine, Diggs robbed the Warrington girl of her virtue. "Diggs comes into court," continued Roche, "and testifies that every drop of liquor these girls drank he supplied; every auto ride was furnished by him, and every roadhouse visited was at his instigation. Entrance to the house of prostitution is not reached at one bound. The chasm between a good home and the brothel is too wide to be easily bridged. It takes several steps. It is by such acts as these that decent, innocent girls are forever ruined and doomed. For the first time a native Californian based the defense of his own depravity on the story which he wrings from the unwilling lips of his victims."

Attorney Devlin for the defense then launched an attack on the girls in the case, saying: "They had no respect for their parents. Young girls now get drinks, take auto rides, go to beach resorts, and the rest follows as a matter of course. You cannot single out one man for his sins against society. Miss Warrington was thrown at Diggs under a fictitious name by Monte Austin, a saloon keeper. That is her own story."

"She knew Diggs was married. She knew he had a wife and child. What does all this mean? Is that the way of a virtuous girl? The defendant may have offended moral laws, but he has at least since then been manly enough to bear all abuse without throwing mud. He has not uttered a single word against the girls. These women in their desire to marry these men either intended driving their wives and children out into the world or wanted to fall as low as women can. A woman who will betray a man who is going back to his wife will say anything."

Sharp references were then made to "the innocent little maid." Devlin, for the defense, argued for Diggs in the charge of white slavery, saying: "He may be a moral monster, but he has at least since then been manly enough to bear all abuse without throwing mud. He has not uttered a single word against the girls. These women in their desire to marry these men either intended driving their wives and children out into the world or wanted to fall as low as women can. A woman who will betray a man who is going back to his wife will say anything."

Predictions on the verdict: Special Government Prosecutor Matt Sullivan: "Nothing can be expected but a verdict of guilty. The defense failed to deny the facts, thereby admitting them. Diggs and the Warrington girl lived together for an immoral purpose. He took her to Reno. Under the court's instructions, conviction must follow."

Defense Attorney Woodworth: "The jury will hang. It will be a substantial disagreement. This is not a white slave case and the jury will refuse to consider it. The Mann act is designed to curb commercialized vice."

Diggs Rages Over Situation
In a statement to the United Press Maury Diggs declared the whole proceeding as rotten and infamous and that hysterical politics had entered into the trial. He said: "I have not been given a square deal. My wife and child and myself as well as the two

Cheyenne Has Thrills in Big Wild West Show

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Aug. 20.—Cheyenne today forgot that this is the year 1913 and harked back to the days when it was the extreme frontier post of the then great unexplored west. The occasion was the sixteenth annual Frontier Days celebration, which began today and will continue through Saturday evening. During the four days Indians from the agencies of Nebraska and Wyoming, cowboys and cowgirls, all accoutred in the garb worn in the old days, will hold full sway. To see them in the riding, roping, shooting and other contests fully thirty thousand visitors are here.

There were eighteen events on today's program which included a half-mile foot race in which only full blooded Indians can enter; cow-punch, burro and wild horse races; fancy riding and driving; shooting and roping exhibitions of all kinds. Several thousand dollars in prizes will go to the winners.

INTERNATIONAL AIR CODE MAY BE ADOPTED

PARIS, Aug. 20.—It is announced that the third congress of the legal international committee on aviation will be held at Frankfurt-on-Main on Sept. 25, 26 and 27. The congress will consider the international air code which has been drawn up by 599 jurists representing 19 states. The former congresses were held in Paris in 1911 and in Geneva in 1912.

girls involved have been compelled to suffer because federal officials were looking for soft places to light. I most certainly am not guilty of white slavery. The Mann act has not only ruined me and my family but Miss Warrington, Miss Norris and their families. It has wrought great injustice. I have had no chance for a fair trial. I could not say anything about the girls. I could not even tell the attorneys all that happened. Because if a man does, they tell him he is a dog. If he does not tell, he must curtail his defense. The whole thing is rotten. McNab is a dirty cad and has made misstatements about the evidence he gathered." Diggs intimated that he expects and is prepared for a verdict of guilty.

DEPARTMENT OF REQUESTS RATE COURT NOW EXISTS BE MADE 90 CENTS

That is the Opinion of District Attorney in Regard to Judge-ship Matter

COURT CLERK AND BAILIFF INTERESTED

Several Attorneys Have Stated that They Think the Act is Constitutional

What would be the effect if midnight tonight passes and Governor Johnson has not appointed a superior judge for Orange county?

This question has interested a goodly number of people today. Among them are attorneys, county officials and friends of the three candidates for the appointment.

The act states that the appointment shall be made within ten days after the going into effect of the act. That ten days is up tonight at midnight. Practically all of those who have investigated the matter are of the opinion that the failure to appoint will have no effect so far as the act is concerned.

Today the matter was passed up to District Attorney L. A. West for a decision. West is of the opinion that a new department of the superior court has been legally established and now exists. The failure of the governor to appoint leaves a situation identical to one that would exist were a judge to die. In other words, there is a vacancy in Department 2, superior court of Orange county.

The matter was put up to the district attorney by County Clerk Williams.

The last county government act, the one that went into effect on midnight of Aug. 19, had two provisions in it that are of particular interest just now. One of those provisions is that the county clerk shall be allowed one deputy, who shall be a court clerk for each department of the superior court of this county. The other is that the sheriff shall have a deputy who shall be a court bailiff for each department. When the salary act went into effect, County Clerk Williams appointed A. L. Hitchcock of Orange as the additional court clerk for the new court, and Sherrin Ruddock appointed P. B. Glover of Santa Ana as the bailiff for the new court. Both of those men are now in office.

The conjecture that the governor would assume that the act is unconstitutional because of an error that provides that the successor to the judge to be appointed shall not be elected until 1915 instead of 1914 brought about a consultation of law books. Even should the governor so hold, the county officials here will proceed as though the law is constitutional. Two or three attorneys have stated that the act is constitutional, that the words in which the error appears are not needed to complete the act.

The district attorney is fully satisfied that a new department of the superior court has been established, and the indications are that even should the governor delay making an appointment Hitchcock and Glover will continue to draw their salaries of $100 a month.

NEW POST OFFICE LOCATION IS ACCEPTED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—The Postoffice Department has accepted the proposal of the W. H. Spurgeon Realty Company to lease new quarters at Sycamore and Third streets, Santa Ana, for ten years from November 1, 1914, or date of occupancy, including equipment, heat, light, water, vault, and when necessary, parcel post and postal savings equipment.

It is presumed the change from the present location on Sycamore between Third and Fourth streets, to the corner of a building now being erected will be made as soon as possible.

MEXICAN SITUATION BELIEVED IMPROVED

Further Negotiations Hinted at in 7000-Word Cipher Telegram to State Department From Huerta

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—A seven thousand word cipher telegram from John Lind is causing activity in the State Department. It will probably be night before the telegram can be completely transcribed. It is believed the message contains the entire result of negotiations to date in Mexico City.

Further Negotiations to Follow
President Wilson has arranged a conference with Senator Bacon of the Senate foreign relations committee, as he wishes to explain and emphasize the late decision that there will be no removal of the embargo on the shipment of arms into Mexico. He believes this will subdue anti-American sentiment.

Provisional President Huerta's last note, in cipher, has been sufficiently translated to indicate that it opens the way for further negotiations. It also claims that conditions in Mexico are more peaceful.

As an explanation of the reports yesterday that an ultimatum was made by Huerta to the United States, it is said to have arisen from the fact that Huerta, in his note refusing to accept mediation either by the United States or any other government, asked the United States to extend recognition before making further overtures for mediation.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 20.—The administration currency bill virtually went to pieces yesterday afternoon so far as the senate is concerned. The vital principle on which it is based was repudiated. No substitute was suggested to take the place of the chief proposal removed.

The Democratic members of the senate committee on banking and currency held a meeting. Chairman Owen amazed his associates by declaring that he was opposed to the regional reserve system. He declared with great emphasis the plan was fallacious and unfair that other banks should be compelled to purchase stock in the regional reserve concerns to the extent of 20 per cent, 16 per cent of which must be paid in. If made compulsory such a plan could not be enforced. If left voluntary the banks would not take stock unless given full control.

The statement made by Chairman Owen created surprise bordering on a sensation. The bill was offered in the house as an administration measure and is now being put through a majority of caucus for the purpose of making its passage through the house certain and easy.

POMONA COLLEGE FORGES TO FRONT
Will Have Largest Freshman Class in its History at Term Opening
POMONA, Aug. 20.—The freshman class of Pomona college will probably be the largest in the history of the institution, when that college opens the fall term on September 24. Already 165 students have registered in the 1917 class, while at this time last year only 80 had enrolled. Last year's freshman class numbered a total of 125 students, but according to the present outlook the class of 1917 will break all records.

LONDON TIMES IS SAD
Bewails British Decision to Not Take Part in the Panama Fair at San Francisco

LONDON, Aug. 20.—The Times again bewails the decision of the British government not to participate in the Panama exposition at San Francisco. The paper says it hopes the striking success which its promoters intend and would like to see Great Britain and Germany take part in.

THAW WINNER OF FIRST ROUND

Gains Safety of Canadian Jail Cell Tonight Rather than Cold Mercies of U. S.

HABEAS CORPUS HEARING
TOMORROW AT 10 O'CLOCK

Bitter Legal Fight Expected;
Thaw Engages Eminent Canadian Counsel

SHERBROOKE, Quebec, Aug. 20.—Harry K. Thaw won the first point in the fight to return him to Matteawan asylum when he was insured the safety of a Canadian jail cell tonight by immigration authorities today. Judge Goblensky granted a preliminary habeas corpus order returnable tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Charles G. White, who will be Thaw's chief counsel here, is satisfied that he is to be given a day to complete his defense. He declared he would rather have a week, but expects to make a vigorous fight against deportation. It is predicted here that the legal proceedings may occupy weeks.

Bitter Legal Fight Expected
SHERBROOKE, Quebec, Aug. 20.—Harry K. Thaw will be released within twenty-four hours because his commitment here was irregular, but will immediately be rearrested and surrendered to the immigration authorities. Unless he then produces the ticket to Detroit which he claims he possesses, he will be deported by the same route he entered Canada. He entered Canada from New Hampshire, so the battle for extradition will probably be fought in the New Hampshire courts.

Thaw today declared: "My arrest is an outrage and my detainers will be sued for damages. I will do my best to send them to jail. I have communicated several times with my mother and sisters. It is nobody's business what the communications contained. I do not want anything more to do with New York lawyers. I have had enough of them."

It is stated here that if Thaw is deported he will be merely taken across the New Hampshire line and released.

Attendants Not Responsible
ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 20.—Following an investigation, State Superintendent of Prisons Riley said he is convinced that the attendants at Matteawan Asylum were not responsible for Harry Thaw's escape. He admitted that the stupidity of the gateman provided an opportunity for the escape.

Efforts were made today to persuade the New Hampshire and Vermont authorities to surrender Thaw to New York in the event that he should be returned to America by Canada through either state.

Each Side Confident
WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—According to experts in the immigration service here it is practically certain that Harry K. Thaw, who was arrested at Coaticook, Quebec, yesterday morning will be returned to the United States. They point out that the Canadian immigration law is so specific on this point as to leave nothing open for controversy.

Thaw, who was taken from Coaticook to Sherbrooke, Quebec, yesterday afternoon, has already retained Solicitor W. L. Shurtleff, one of the best-known lawyers in eastern Canada. Shurtleff has had vast experience in tangled cases presenting great difficulty to counsel and has usually been on the winning side. Shurtleff gave out the following statement last night: "I shall resist the arrest of Thaw on the ground that he has not committed any offense for which he can be tried in Canada. He is charged with escaping from Matteawan, which is not an offense against the Canadian law."

"I expect that he will be discharged on a habeas corpus writ. Extradition proceedings, if pressed, will be contested, as will also any attempt to get him deported by the Canadian government."

Two men were arrested with Thaw but liberated later at Coaticook. They are believed to be confederates who aided Thaw in his escape. The two men refused to give their names or say anything about themselves. They followed Thaw here from Coaticook and remained in town over night.

DEATH OF HERMAN SILVER
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 20.—With a record of more than half a century in active politics, once president of the Los Angeles city council, a public servant of high renown in three states, contemporary and friend of the immortal Lincoln—thus is broadly described the public career of Herman Silver, whose activities, stretching across a continent, were ended suddenly by heart failure last night at his home, No. 981 Magnolia avenue.

ENGLAND GAINS FREE SUGAR IS CONCESSION IN MEXICO WRITTEN INTO TARIFF BILL

Huerta Grants Privilege of Extending Railroad to City of Mexico Administration Wins in Tariff Fight in Senate by Vote of 39 to 34

LONDON, Aug. 20.—A report reaches here that Provisional President Huerta of Mexico has granted Lord Cowdray a concession for the construction of a branch of the existing English railroad from a western coast city to the City of Mexico. This branch will afford quick transportation from Honduras and eastern ports of Mexico to Acapulco and other western ports. It will also open up the vast British-owned wheat fields north and west of Acapulco. It will outstrip the American railroad across Tehuantepec, which will be able to quote freight rates from New York to San Francisco lower than the Panama canal can afford. Herein lies the importance of the concession.

Lord Cowdray, who has large interests in Mexico, is the moving spirit in the enterprise.

CONTROLLER NYE PASSED AWAY LAST NIGHT

Death Resulted from Attack of Pneumonia Following Paralytic Stroke

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 20.—State Controller Alfred Bourne Nye died from pneumonia at his home here at 8:43 p.m. last night, ending a career of more than ten years in the state's services.

His death had been expected hourly since Monday night. Present at his bedside when death came were Mrs. Nye and a few close friends.

The pneumonia, which developed Monday afternoon, was brought on by the weakened physical condition of the patient, resulting from the attack of paralysis he suffered on the night of August 4, the fourth such attack within a year.

Funeral services will be held in Sacramento Thursday and interment will be made in Oakland.

Mr. Nye would have been 60 years old if he had lived until October 25.

At the Controller's death was the indirect result of too close application to his work is the opinion of his friends and associates in the state service.

Mr. Nye was regarded as the most capable and popular controller the state has ever had. He is survived by a wife only.

LOS ANGELES ZOO TO BE BEST IN WEST

New Home for Animals Will be in Griffith Park in Fine Surroundings

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 20.—Placing of animals in Los Angeles' new zoo at Griffith Park, which is expected to become the best collection of animals owned by any city in the West, will begin in two weeks. There will be placed in the new zoo home between 150 and 200 animals, most of which are now at Eastlake Park.

In the new zoo the animals will have everything arranged so as to make their existence as near as possible in accordance with their natures, and thus it is expected that the animals will be healthier and more attractive than at present.

The new home of the bears will be a park on the hillside, where they will have three caves in the rocks. None of the city bears have been provided with such a luxury since they were taken into captivity.

There is a variety of deer to be placed in the new deer park. Of these there are eight white Russian deer, two axis deer, two black fall and some native California deer. With the deer will be twelve elk and ten antelope.

TWO WAYS OF RAISING FRUIT

The ways of the American apple grower in past years have been in singular contrast to the care used in orange and lemon cultivation. The orange grower has always understood that he must cultivate and fertilize his orchard, and to prevent bruising must handle his fruit as if it were eggs.

The need for equally scientific methods in the raising of apples was the dominant theme at the 19th convention of apple shippers, just held in Cleveland, Ohio. Today you find an intelligent minority of farmers who treat their apple orchards as if apples were a real crop. They give the land its proper food. They also handle their fruit on padded bins and tables and pack it in tissue. Most of the older farmers would as soon think of taking these precautions with stove wood.

Science counts. Three times as many oranges were raised in the United States in 1909 as in 1899. During the same period the apple product fell off sixteen per cent.

The average farmer has regarded his apple orchard as merely a wild crop, something like huckleberries or timber. A thick growth of grass and weeds under the trees absorbed a big share of the soil's nutriment. Useless suckers were parasites on the trees' growth. The soil underneath was never stirred, and much of the rainfall ran off the unbroken earth.

Unsprayed fruit trees were juicy feasts for cohorts of worms. In picking, the apples were tossed from basket to barrel or pile to pile, as if they were potatoes. Placed loosely in a barrel, they shucked during transportation like anthracite coal.

Happily the methods of spraying, cultivation, and packing which the apple shippers urged throughout their Cleveland meeting are coming into more general use. As the apple is grown successfully in every state in the union, it bids fair to become more of a national asset than it has been in the past.

WHAT A DIFFERENCE!

It takes the harrowing details of deaths from heat and suffering in the tenement districts of eastern cities, and damage from drought and blistering sun in the Middle West to make us appreciate our great blessing of climate in Southern California, especially in Orange County.

While we have nothing of the kind here, and no need of it, in many railroad trains and stations in the East one may see that strange picture of glee, humor, and pathos, a group of city children on a "fresh air" outing. The little blossoms are so faded and droopy. Afterward, the flower faces come back so stiff and perky, as if they were wired up.

The appeal for this charity gets wide attention. The Christian Herald's fund was recently swelled by $500 through a group of distant Rocky Mountain cowboys. Most of them were unmarried men. Some newspaper story touched them, and they drove for days over the weary plains to advertise their benefit circus.

Bad air, lack of sanitation, lack of sufficient or proper food, kills about one-fifth the tenement children before they are two years old. Ruddy faces can't be built up on coffee, coarse bread, and green fruit. One New York mother, after losing five children, was feeding the sixth infant on a big red tomato. When a settlement worker remonstrated, she spoke her contempt of the girl's inexperience. "This is a nice red tomato and it will make good red blood."

The benefit of the fresh air work is not merely the temporary stimulation of good nourishing food, fresh air, and a fortnight of joy. A desire to flee the unwholesome slums may be created. Of course many of them prefer the clattering crowds of the cities. When they quit for the beloved lights and odors of home, they nonchalantly yell "Good-bye Reubens" to the rustic crowd at Lonesomehurst.

But the boy who asks the farmer where he buys the gum that the cows chew is developing an interest in rural economics. Afterward, the scent of the hay field and the friendly companionship of the barn yard family is a fragrant memory. Some day he will quit the stitching machine servitude for the self mastery of the farm.

While a leopard cannot change its spots, an octopus can get rid of a tentacle or two. The New Haven railroad is selling some of its monopolistic trolley lines.

SIZING UP THE POLITICAL SITUATION GUBERNATORIALLY

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20.—The most formidable Democratic aspirant for governor at this time is State Senator John B. Curtin of Tuolumne, who has announced that he will stick in the race to the finish.

It is understood that the reactionary Republicans want Curtin to be the Democratic nominee and have promised that they will deliver the vote of the old guard in solid mass.

As a Democrat who can draw the Republicans to his enthusiastic support, Senator Curtin seems to possess star qualities. But these reactionary sympathies are causing no end of trouble for him in his own party.

"We'll have nothing of Curtin, and we would turn in and help elect the Progressive candidate rather than support the Senator," is the angry announcement from the Phelan wing. Since this element has been entrenched in federal jobs, it has taken on a new prestige and has become bolder in defiance.

The question therefore remains open as to what kind of a Democrat it shall be who is to lead the onslaught on Progressive ascendancy in the state.

The Phelanites have their candidate for United States senator in James D. Phelan, but as for the governorship they are completely at sea. They will have none of Curtin, but they have no other man to offer.

The reactionary Republicans declare openly that they would get behind Curtin to a man, and being dominated by the sense of partisanship, argue that the Democratic party is losing its golden opportunity to win the state. The reactionaries are, of course, bent on crushing Progressivism to earth and are eager to combine with the Democrats to do so.

The opposition of the unruly Phelanites to Curtin makes it appear that his candidacy can result only in disruption. In fact, it doesn't look as if there can be anything but dissatisfaction of some element, no matter who is put forward to lead the associated forces against the Progressive ticket.

the state—on the San Francisco harborfront, at the prisons, the state hospitals, etc.—is removed from political considerations. We will have no trouble in maintaining this situation. It is to be regarded as an upheaval in California politics, judging from past regimes. There can be no question that the state has made a great step in the progress of government.

"The indictment against civil service has been its failure to promote efficiency as it should. However, our California law gives the commission sufficient authority and power, and it is up to us to make good. We have a splendid law to work under, and I hope and believe we shall accomplish a great deal for the good of public service. I think we shall make a success of it, and if we do, the Progressives of California may well regard it as one of their biggest achievements, for real civil service, which is the kind the state is going to have, is of inestimable advantage for the welfare of government."

"My one regret in connection with our law is that court reporters were not made subject to it. Their exactions from litigants is a blot upon our judicial system."

Commissioner Reed, in an interview today, said:

"Civil service always succeeds in keeping the jobs out of politics. Garden Grove M. E. Church

A meeting of great interest and widespread influence has been held weekly in the lecture room of this church for some years past, and it was a great privilege to attend it last night. It is no common thing to find in a town of that size about fifty people spending two hours together on a week night in the study of God's Word, and the pastor and church are to be congratulated that have a superintendent of the Bible school who is able to lead such a meeting with so much interest and efficiency as did their superintendent last night.

I understand that the meeting is open to all without distinction, and I am confident that it offers to the people of Garden Grove an opportunity to become increasingly familiar with the vital and helpful teachings of the Word of God.

A VISITOR.

GENEROUS DEEDS ON RECORD

Employers Who Left Large Legacies to Men Who Helped Them Build Up Their Fortunes

Many employers during recent years have shown their generosity to their employees by leaving them legacies. When Thomas Edward Walton of Galesburg, Portland, Bowdoin, Cheshire, died he left a will bequeathing $12,500 and one-third of his residuary estate to Frances Nixon, in his service at the date of the will. Mr. Walton left an estate of $125,000 gross value.

Very generous indeed was a German merchant named Hinkel, resident in Moscow. By his will, proved a little while ago, he bequeathed his business and his fortune, amounting to $250,000, to his employees. All members of the staff, including clerks, bookkeepers, packers, porters and doorkeepers, were to have a share in the dead man's business and an amount of money to be reckoned on the basis of the first annual wage multiplied by the number of years they had been in the service.

Those who had worked for him for less than five years were to receive a joint sum of $50,000, which was to be divided according to wages and length of service.

A London solicitor with a large practice called a young lawyer, whom he had employed for several years, into his private office one afternoon some years ago and offered him his business as a gift. The young solicitor naturally accepted it, and he is now a well-known lawyer with a fortune exceeding that of his generous predecessor.

SMALL BOY LITTLE CHANGED

Incident of Seventy Years Ago Proves That He Was Then as Irrepressible as Now

The small boy of today is often credited with a predilection for saying the wrong thing in the presence of an honored guest. The following true incident shows that he also had to be reckoned with more than seventy years ago.

In the pioneer days of Michigan, Deacon Brewster was noted for his large family and his hospitality. One day Elder Allen, the circuit rider, young, good-looking, and, moreover, a bachelor, arrived at the deacon's in time for dinner. Presently a bounteous meal appeared upon a board rather scantily furnished, it must be owned, with certain necessities in the way of tableware. After all were seated and the blessing, Miss Betsy, the eldest daughter, thinking to apologize, blushing began:

"I'm sorry I couldn't find a better knife for you, Mr. Allen. The children carry them out to dig with, you see, and forget to bring them back."

"Why's Sister?" piped Johnny's shrill voice. "They're all here! The elder's got No-Handle, dad hez Butcher and mammy, Stub! He'll jest have to take turns eating, with the rest of us."—Woman's Home Companion.

"Jones is some speeder, isn't he?" "I should say! He had to put a mortgage on his house lately to get cash for his fines."

PORTLAND CLAMPS LID ON X-RAY DRESS

Mayor Orders Police to Arrest All Women Wearing Immodest Dress on Streets

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 20.—Mayor Albee has ordered Chief of Police Clarke to arrest every woman found wearing the so-called X-ray dress on the streets.

The action of the mayor followed his observations during a trip about town, particularly in and around the big department stores. Mayor Albee saw the objectionable dresses at short range and hurried to a telephone and gave his orders to the police.

The question of whether a dress is an X-ray gown will be left to the judgment and discretion of the police.

The "lid" is to include all kinds of feminine attire which comes under the term of "immodest dress" and includes necks cut too low and sheath-like skirts too much "sheathed," or slit skirts too much slit.

It was made plain to the police they must not discriminate as to the wearer whether it be a society woman or belle or a woman of the streets.

STRIKE LEADERS ARRESTED AND 500 MINERS IN CUSTODY

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 20.—John Place, Socialist member of the British Columbia parliament; Arthur Jordan, secretary of the Nanaimo Coal Miners' local; and Joe Abelo, leader of the foreign element in the strike at Nanaimo, were arrested at Nanaimo Monday night.

Surrounding the Nanaimo Athletic Club, where 500 miners had gathered to discuss the terms of the proposed agreement with the management of the Jinglepot mine, four hundred soldiers under the command of Colonel Hall barred every avenue of escape and took every man in the building in to custody.

The inference—It's an awful shame. My little nephew got hold of that poem I wrote to you, and tore it to shreds.

Opposition to Paving of West Fifth Strongest West of Artesia

Remainder of Street Seems Likely to be Signed Up Before Next Monday

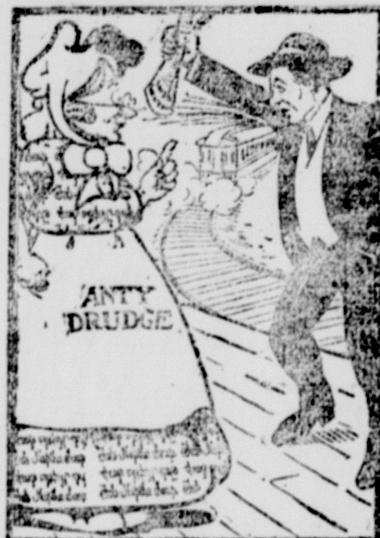

Today three petitions were prepared for signatures of property owners on West Fifth street, the first step to be taken toward paving that street from Garvey street to the west city limits, joining the county good roads at that point.

At the meeting of West Fifth street property owners last night at the West Fifth street school house, between thirty-five and forty property owners were present, including a number of women. Trustees McPhee, Greenlee, and Alderman were present. From the various talks made by property owners it appeared that there would be no great difficulty in getting the street paved from curb to curb between Garvey and Baker streets. From Baker street west to the city limits it was proposed to pave the center of the street with a twenty-foot strip to conform to the kind of pavement to be laid by the county outside the west city limits on the Santa Ana-Huntington Beach road.

ARE SHIPPING SUGAR BEETS

Several Carloads Have Gone from Garden Grove to Sugar Factories

GARDEN GROVE, Aug. 20.—Beets are being dumped at the Garden Grove beet dumps every day. The crop is a fine one, judging from the looks of the fields and the size of the beets. Several carloads were shipped this week.

The several new houses being constructed in Garden Grove will soon be completed. Tom Jessup is having a new ten-inch well put down on his ranch southeast of town. Elliott & Ellis are doing the work.

The house which has been lately moved onto the north side of Aradisa street was formerly on the Green place, one mile south of town. It will be remodeled and painted, and will be occupied by Dr. Guman, who expects his mother and sisters to live there with him. Mr. Green is building a new modern house on the ranch from which the old one was moved.

Chas. Swall and K. O. Stark went out on a hunt on Monday in the vicinity of Newhall and brought home a fine lot of cottontails. They report a fine trip.

Miss Pearl Nimmo of Olive is visiting at her home with her mother this week.

Mrs. E. Beardsley, who has been in Santa Ana taking care of Mr. Beardsley's aunt, returned home on Wednesday.

Miss Sadie Butler has taken a position at the People's Store to fill the place which will be vacated by Miss Ethel Swall, who expects to go to town in September to attend Grace-land College.

A. W. Lewis is driving a new Ford machine.

John Carmichael and family, of Fresno, drove down here by auto to visit N. Carmichael and family. They will remain here another week and then go to Los Angeles and take in the beaches, after which they will return to their home.

S. Horowitz, part owner and manager of the People's Store, was married yesterday to Miss Lillie Schneider of Watts. After a short wedding trip they will reside in the new house built by Mr. Roh for them.

Fred Horowitz is taking charge of the store in the absence of his brother, S. Horowitz.

Misses Adella and Eva Mills, who are here from Bishop visiting friends and relatives, expect to go to Newport Beach to visit there a while before returning to their home on Sept. 1.

Miss Hazel Swall will go to Los Angeles to take a post graduate course in surgery.

Dr. Ashleigh has returned from his vacation and began regular services at the Methodist church Sunday, the first service held there for three weeks.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

COUNTY LIKELY
BUY TUSTIN
BONDSInvestment is Permissible Under
New Act—Gas Company
Asks for FranchiseTWO BEACH CITIES
ARE TO BE SERVEDApplication Was Filed Yesterday
by the Southern California
Gas Company

The $50,000 bonds voted by the Tustin school district for which no purchaser has yet been found may be bought by the county. The matter was brought up at the meeting of the supervisors yesterday by County Auditor Lester, who stated that the purchase can be made under a new statute.

The Tustin bonds are known to be gift-edged. The district has no indebtedness against it. Owing to the fact that the money market is not in good condition, bond-buyers of Los Angeles have declined to bid for the bonds, promising to do so, however, when the market improves. The Tustin district is anxious to have the money available so that it can go ahead with the erection of a fine new grammar and primary school building. The bonds will pay five per cent. It is proposed to use some of the money now deposited in banks for the purchase of the bonds. This morning supervisor Leck took the matter up with District Attorney West.

Under Advisement
Eleven bids were received yesterday for the building of the section of county highway between Orange and Olive. These were taken under advisement until Aug. 28 that the highway engineer may figure out which of the bids is the lowest.

Wants Franchise
The Southern California Gas Co. asked that a franchise be put up for sale for the laying of gas pipelines over county roads to connect with Huntington Beach and Newport Beach. The company, a Huntington corporation of Los Angeles, proposes to enter those two municipalities for the purpose of selling gas. This matter has been taken over on several occasions, but yesterday it came before the supervisors in definite shape with the application for the sale of the franchise. Bids were ordered called for, to be opened Oct. 7. The company wants to lose no time in getting to work upon the project.

Other Matters
The application of G. A. Cook for laying a pipeline across a county road at Garden Grove was granted.
The pipeline petition of C. M. Holderman of Tustin was granted.

The sheriff was given permission to buy a new copying machine for his office.
The board adjourned to Aug. 28.

According to the figures of the engineers of the County Highway Commission, the lowest of the eleven bids put in yesterday to the Board of Supervisors for building the Orange-Olive road is that of Withers & Crites of Los Angeles, which firm's bids total $12,074.87. The road to be constructed measures 2.57 miles, extending from the north city limits of Orange to the village of Olive along the main traveled road.

The contract goes at a figure considered by Engineer Halladay as very reasonable. In fact, so far contracts that have been let have been under the engineer's estimates.

Withers & Crites must furnish their own gravel for this job. They will probably get it from the Santiago creek.

As figured out by the engineer yesterday's bids were: Withers & Crites,

LIGHT SENTENCE
IN FRAUD CASE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Scathing criticism of the naval court which tried Paymaster Theodore J. Arms on charges of "culpable inefficiency" was endorsed by Secretary Daniels upon the finding of the court sentencing the paymaster to a loss of three numbers in grade for his connection with the commissary frauds aboard the battleship Louisiana.

The secretary said the sentence was wholly inadequate and that he approved it only to prevent the officer's escaping punishment entirely.

Afraid to Come Back to United States—Takes Work With Packing Firm

NOGALES, ARIZ., Aug. 29.—Didier Masson has arrived in Nogales, Sonora, from Hermosillo. Persons who have talked with him say that he appears to be very much worried and does not by any means think of going back to the Sonora campaign nor venture into the United States for fear of warrants, said to have been issued because of his alleged connection with the aeroplane capture from Pike's ranch. He says he will take a safer position by accepting a job as agent of a packing firm. He adds he had too close a call and does not intend to run such risks with his life again. The aeroplane project is abandoned entirely. Masson was dismissed and sent north by Obregon, who never had any faith in the aeroplane.

EUREKA, Cal., Aug. 20.—Accompanied by more than 100 delegates from the three Pacific coast states, Governors Johnson of California and Lister of Washington reached Eureka last night to attend the good roads rally which convenes tomorrow. The visitors traveled from Weaverville, Trinity county, over the Trinity state highway in automobiles and were escorted into the city by a large delegation in automobiles who went to the end of the state highway to meet them.

Governor Johnson opened the rally this morning with an address, introducing Governor Lister, who presided over the rally. "The General Necessity of Good Roads" will be the topic handled by Washington's governor. Other exponents of better highways followed the chief executive with addresses.

Governors Lister and Johnson will be the principal speakers tonight at a mass meeting in Occidental Pavilion, at which Robert Newton Lynch of San Francisco, United States Highway Engineer B. H. Burrell, and Rufus R. Wilson of Eureka also will speak.

OF $300

Suit Brought Over Buena Park Property—Houghton Suit is Dismissed

Today an action was commenced by Paul Gabriel against C. H. and G. B. McWilliams. The complaint, filed by Attorneys James, Smith and McCarthy of Los Angeles, states that on June 24, 1908, the defendants agreed to sell to the plaintiff for $1500, lot 10, block B, Buena Park Eucalyptus tract. The defendant has declined to make the deed. The court is asked to order the deed made and to give the plaintiff $300 damages for failure to carry out the agreement.

Case Dismissed
With the transfer of a case from Los Angeles, a dismissal was today entered in that case. The action was brought in Los Angeles by Maude Deitrick against James Houghton of Garden Grove. The plaintiff alleged that Houghton agreed to trade property at 1573 West Forty-ninth street, Los Angeles, and a lot at Garvanza for twenty acres two miles west of Jorden Grove, but failed to do so. By default, judgment was entered in Los Angeles against Houghton. A motion to set aside the judgment was made in Los Angeles, and a change of venue to this county was secured. Today with the filing of the case here came a dismissal of it on a stipulation stating that the case was settled, out of court. J. B. Holley of Los Angeles represented the plaintiff and F. L. Hunt the defendant.

The history of Occidental College during its twenty-five years is one of peculiar interest and the fact that the college will move onto a new ninety-acre campus and enter new, modern, up-to-date and fireproof buildings, upon which there is not a dollar's indebtedness, is unprecedented in the history of American colleges and universities.
